If there was an online herd book, would you want your information available to other Registered breeders? Yes _____ No _____

A separate and unique prefix is required for each address pigs are located at even if owned by the same breeder.

I verify that the information provided is true and accurate and by signing this form I agree to allow the Idaho Pasture Pig Registry to give out my contact information to prospective buyers and people looking for Idaho Pasture Pigs. I understand that if I do not follow the breed standard or the rules set forth by the Registry, or if I cause harm to another breeder or the Registry itself, I may lose my Breeder Prefix and Registration rights without a refund of monies paid. If a partnership dissolves, the breeder prefix owned by the partnership, will be dissolved. If either partner provides a notarized & signed paper relinquishing rights to the prefix, then the opposing partner will be able to retain the rights to that prefix. All questions must be answered and a signature from EVERY person listed as an owner above is required.
